Women To Vote.

Women suffrage in all school elections in this State, and making them eligible to hold the office of School Trustee, is provided for in a bill introduced in the Senate by Senator George L. of Calloway county. The bill is backed by the State Federation of Women's Clubs, which will send a strong lobby to Frankfort to work for the passage of the measure.

The present law gives women the right to vote in school elections in certain cases, such as widows with children of school age, and spinsters who are guardians of school children. The bill makes no exceptions, and allows all women of legal age, who can read and write, the right to vote in school quinquennials. The advocates of the bill claim that extending the suffrage to women will have the effect of stimulating their interest in school masters.

Notice.

To all market gardeners and truck growers, who wish to grow cabbage, tomatoes, and cantaloupe for the market, I would be glad to furnish your plants. I have 10,000 cabbage plants now up, and will be ready for transplanting in a short time, also have the big Boston lettuces heading early in the spring like cabbage.—A. L. Lowery, 32c.

THE LEGEND OF THE DAISIES

By Byron Williams.

Blooming daisies by the road,
The flowers with your name on them?
The flowers of the garden, the flowers of the field,
As part of the great summer, the flowers with the ragwood?

Now here by the roadside near,
When they were blooming, the flowers,
But the flowers in the bushes, and the flowers in the fields,
And the flowers in the woods, and the flowers in the hills?

Now here by the roadside near,
When they were blooming, the flowers,

Now here by the roadside near,

Good Style

Good style in dress is largely a matter of individual taste. One man will have a liking for the extreme of fashion while another will wish to have the sharp lines toned and softened in harmonious accord with his own more conservative ideas.

It all amounts simply to this: Good style is the recognition of fashion's dictates plus some slight preferences of our own.

Good style, then, in clothes for men, means that we should have our garments made to our measure and made to conform to our individual notions.

Our orders are all carefully and promptly made to measure by The Royal Tailors, of Chicago and New York, and we guarantee not only good style, but a perfect fit and the very finest tailoring.

We are now showing the complete new Royal line of Spring Suitings and Overcoatings—beautiful and exclusive patterns—something to please everybody.

If good style, snappy clothes, high qualities and moderate prices interest you, then Royal tailoring is what you're looking for. Come and see the hundreds of new and beautiful domestic and imported fabrics.

ROYAL TAILOR DAYS

Friday, Saturday, Monday, February 14, 15 <sup>and</sup> 17

On these three days we shall make

Special Displays

of the THE ROYAL TAILOR line of Spring Suitings and Overcoatings —————

We shall show hundreds of samples of beautiful and exclusive patterns. A selection from these sample lengths can be made with the assurance that you will know just what your suit will look like when made up. YOU are cordially INVITED to inspect the line.

Why

you should have clothes made by The Royal Tailors.

Because

The Royal Tailors is the largest tailoring concern in the United States and their capacity is so great that they can purchase enormous quantities of cloth at the very lowest prices, and their out-put is so heavy that their prices are made at a very low margin of profit. This insures you the very LOWEST PRICES.

Comparison of sample lengths of Royal Tailors with another good line showed differences of as high as $8.75 per suit, for same cloth, in favor of Royal Tailors.

Because Every garment is made exactly from your measure. They have no ready-made suits from which to select a suit to your measure, but cut and make each and every garment according to the measurements.

Because Every garment sent out by The Royal Tailors is a PERFECT FIT, and—

Because The Royal Tailors is the only tailoring concern which gives with every garment sent out a WRITTEN GUARANTEE signed in pen and ink, guaranteeing every garment to HOLD ITS STYLE UNTIL WORN OUT. The Royal Tailors is the only concern which can give such a guarantee, because it is only by their secret process that ALL of the shrink can be taken out of a piece of goods.

And Now,

For Our Part: A garment cannot fit if the measures are not correctly taken—

Listen! Of the hundreds of orders sent to The Royal Tailors by us, we have never had a suit or pants rejected as a misfit.

We Guarantee a Fit!!

If it doesn't, it isn't yours. We should be pleased to show you testimonials from Hickman's best dressers, as to the merits of Royal Tailoring.

We cordially invite you to inspect our showing on

"There's No Place Like Home."

We know this appeals to you. Why don't you build one? Have you investigated the liberal inducements of your home institution, THE HICKMAN BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION? This association is the poor man's savings bank. Eighteen years ago it was organized and has been conducted along the same conservative lines throughout its existence.

Look about you and you will observe the monuments that speak for its return on investments. This Association will build from the humble cot to the stately mansion; but it is conducted for the man with the limited means, income or wages.

The thirty-seventh series is now open and the books will be closed at 2 o'clock p.m., Thursday, Feb. 20, 1908. For further information call on the secretary at his office in the Hickman Marble Works.

Watch for our semi-annual statement in next week's issue of this paper.

SCIENCE AND INVENTION.

NEW TYPE OF MOTORBOAT.

Inventor of the "Typhonoid" Guarantees Speed of 62 Miles an Hour.

The latest type of motor boat was launched last month at the Neuville yard, near Nantes, France. The boat is the invention of M. Andre Gambin and presents a novel and distinctive departure from present types of motor boats. M. Gambin, after 15 years of fruitless attempts to improve the action of the screw propeller, conceived the idea of converting the defects of that apparatus into advantages by the adoption of the "Typhonoid" screw, from which the boat takes its name.

When after the boat presents a very low appearance with no suggestion of the peculiar apparatus by which it is propelled, M. Chauvin, the assistant constructor of the little ingenious claims that it cannot be capsized, except possibly when making a short turn at high speed, when great skill on the part of the steersman is required.

The motive power consists of two four-cylinder V-type motors of 60 horsepower each, coupled together and to the propeller shaft. Double in motion by necessity and by automatic transmission, the propeller is free of fathoms. The propeller is 31½ inches in diameter, which is placed at the bow. The inventor has guaranteed a speed of 62 kilometers, or more than 42 miles an hour.

In the new boat the centrifugal device is removed and the central propeller thus converted into a propulsive effect, and the limit to the advantageous increase in the velocity of rotation of the propeller is removed. The "typhonoid" is derived from a Greek word which means a whirlwind, and the apparatus is designed to act by suction on the water as it passes through the propeller.

According to experiments, the typhonoid will produce the maximum of speed for a given expenditure of power, and as it presents no protecting eddies, it is manifestly superior to the ordinary screw propeller for the navigation of shallow waters containing the vegetation growing on the bottom.

Another consists of a number of blades six in this instance—symmetrically distributed around an axis and terminating in a cylindrical tube.

Each blade is composed of two sheets of iron, one sheet is apertured.

Underneath a longitudinal sheet is fitted with iron edge along the axis and its outer portion forming the envelope tube.

The other sheet is smaller, increased and bented like the blade of an ordinary screw propeller.

It extends from the front end of the longitudinal sheet to the hind end of the cylindrical sheet of the preceding blade.

The principal dimensions of the typhonoid are: Length over all, 59 feet, length on waterline, 52½ feet, greatest width over all, 5½ feet, greatest width at waterline, 4 feet, 7 inches, molded depth, 2 feet 7½ inches, mean draft, 2 feet 7½ inches, area of amidships sections, 7½ square feet.

LARGEST CAVE IN WEST.

Most Remarkable Cavern Discovered in California Mountains.

Two mid-prospectors recently discovered in the Santa Barbara mountains, about 50 miles from Los Angeles, Cal., the largest and most remarkable cave in the entire Pacific Coast. While looking for indications of gold, they found an opening which they entered. The opening led to a great cavern, consisting of many passages of various sizes with, but most of them narrow and lofty. The passages that enter great halls, some containing an acre, are filled with stalactites and stalagmites, some so thickly that it is difficult to get through. The walls of one of these halls are covered with rock drawings, some almost obliterated, but others still clear. The drawings represent incidents of Indian life, deer, antelope, and other animals.

One wall-painting shows the bear pursuing the hunter. The work is done with a soft, red stone much used by the Indians for that purpose.

A New Gem.

A new gem has been discovered by prospectors in San Joaquin County, Calif., the largest dry goods store, blue glass, a visitor lists in the described section. It surpasses the sapphire in brilliancy and rivals it in color, though it is not so hard, being about half as hard as chrysolite, and harder than turquoise. It is lighter, heat it turns bright red but does not regain its normal color. It has been given the name of Benito, from the country in which it was found.

If you have any good Beef Cattle to sell, it will pay you to see us before you dispose of them. Call and see us when in town.

as Man. The Courier isn't selfish; it doesn't ask this to the neglect of others. It simply recognizes the fact that what a mirror is to one's face a local paper is to the town. In other words, the local newspapers reflect the character and condition of the town in which they are published as plainly as the mirror reflects the face of an individual.

Balance to credit this account, Jan. 1, 1908 1635.25

The foregoing statement shows a balance in the Treasury Jan. 1st, 1908, of $2597.90

During the year $2700.00 was loaned out of the Water and Light Bond Account secured by first mortgage on improved real estate. Said money is being reserved to redeem the Water and Light Bonds at maturity. The only outstanding City Hall Bonds are the five bonds redeemed with the E. Case Memorial Fund.

The bonded indebtedness of the City other than that heretofore mentioned is the $30,000 thirty year Water and Light Bonds, upon which all interest has been paid, and as above shown there has been set aside $2700 to be applied on the payment of same; there is also about $1000 of the River Bank Bonds outstanding and held by H. A. Tyler and F. E. Case, which are being reduced annually by credit of taxes due city on the property to which these bonds apply. The present indebtedness of the city, other than heretofore mentioned, with the exception of a few small accounts is as follows: H. Buchanan note for $1000 upon which all interest has been paid. Balance of about $225 on sewer note held by J. F. & S. L. Dodds Co., which is being reduced annually by their city taxes being applied to same.

Respectfully submitted,
H. C. HELM, City Clerk.

Announcement,

To the voters of Fulton County:

I take this means of announcing myself as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Fulton County.

I am not going to make this race because my friends have insisted on me doing so, but because I want the office and believe I can fill it satisfactorily. When I say this, I am not losing sight of the fact that this office is one of importance, trust and responsibility, and that the man who fills it should be one of the people's most trusted servants.

I do not claim that I could make you a better sheriff than some of the other gentlemen who are asking the same honor at your hands, yet my connection with this office for the past three years has made me better acquainted with its duties and general business routine than any who may oppose me in the contest, besides giving you a chance to see whether or not my work has been satisfactory—and I leave that to your decision.

In making this race I expect to run on my own merits, and ask your consideration only on those grounds. If the voters of Fulton county see fit to elect me to this office, you may depend upon me to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability, and without fear or favor.

In justice to myself and others, I wish to state here that the report which has been circulating to the effect that I have already promised the deputyship to Sid Hamby is absolutely false. I will not appoint him, nor have I promised the position to any one.

In conclusion, I respectfully ask your consideration in the coming campaign, assuring you that it will be appreciated, and every effort put forth to merit your support should you feel inclined to thus favor me.

Respectfully,
GOAHLER J. JOHNSON.

Pianos! Organs!

I am now located at Hickman and it will be a pleasure to speak with you in regard to any grade of piano or organ you desire. I have handled 51 different makes of pianos and have spent several years studying the construction of the different makes, therefore can interest you when it comes to talking instrument, and save you money on best quality.

The Episcopal Meeting.

Bishop Woodcock, of Louisville, one of the most able workers in the religious cause that has ever visited our city, is conducting a splendid meeting at St. Paul's church, assisted by our local pastor, Rev. C. L. Price.

The weather has been extremely unfavorable to the progress of the meeting, however, the attendance is even larger than could be expected under the circumstances, and much interest is manifest.

If you have not heard the Bishop, you know you are missing a treat. He is indeed fortunate in securing him for this service. Attend these services by all means.

Met At Union City.

A number of representatives of the different Fair Associations of West Tennessee held a meeting at Union City, Friday, for the purpose of arranging dates for the different fairs this fall and to perfect an organization by means of which all matters looking to the good of different associations could be fostered in a systematic manner.

The following were present: G. S. Boyd, Dresden; R. L. Goldsby, Greenfield; R. D. Hart, Waverly; O. C. Barton; J. M. Freeman, J. N. Cooper, Paris; R. A. Tyler, Hickman; A. B. Campbell, Union City; L. Hale, Harry Coulter, Mayfield; G. H. Goodman, Paducah; J. E.

Hamilton, Dyersburg.

These officers elected were W. C. Farris, pres.; R. L. Goldsby, vice pres.; R. D. Hart, secy.; J. M. Truman, aast. secy.

These dates have been assured, Paducah, Sept. 16-19; Mayfield, Sept. 23-26; Paris, Oct. 2-10; Dresden, Oct. 14-17; Waverly, Oct. 21-24; Dyersburg, Oct. 28-31.

Mr. Wickersham and son, of Dyersburg, were here Monday and Tuesday in interest of the Library. It will be remembered by many of the citizens, that Mr. Wickersham erected Hickman College about sixteen years ago.

E. B. Lovelace Dead.

E. B. Lovelace, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Fulton, died at his home Saturday morning, death being due to pneumonia.

Had he lived, he would have celebrated his eightieth birthday Tuesday, Feb. 18.

E. B. Lovelace was born in Ballard County Kentucky, Feb. 18, 1827. For many years he lived at Moscow and during his early days he visited the western frontier and for a while made his home in Texas. He afterwards located in Union City, Tenn., and about ten years ago moved to Fulton.

Several children are left to mourn his loss.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. H. McLeaskey at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. Interment was had at the city cemetery under the auspices of the Masons.

Carpenter and Ward, managers of the ferry, bought the gasoline boat, Sunflower, and will use it to tow the big ferry boat. Their passenger gasoline boat, the Hazel, got her wheel knocked off Monday, out in midstream by a heavy chunk. She had to be towed in, and will be out of commission until another wheel can be purchased.

The warehouse at Dorena, just across the river from Hickman, belonging to John Bryant and Joe Polhamus had to be moved back from the river on account of the bank caving. The bank at this place has been caving for some time and during the high wind last week the bank fell in where the warehouse stood. A New Madrid crew did the work.

The Hargis-Cockrill feud, out of which grew almost innumerable tragedies with which Hargis' name is linked had its inception in a political contest. Cockrill opposed Hargis at the polls. Bitter feeling resulted and one day Judge Hargis met one of the Cockrill boys in a saloon, and during a gun play Cockrill killed Ben Hargis.

In the fall of 1902 came the first murderer in the feud. Dr. Cox, guardian of the Cockrill boys, was the victim. Cox returned one night from a professional call and was shot dead as he entered his gate. Afterwards John Smith, John Abner and others of the alleged Hargis band of assassins were accused of the crime, and in a confession by one of them they asserted Judge Hargis hired them to kill Cox.

From this time on the story of the Hargis-Cockrill feud is written in blood. The next to fall was Jim Cockrill, town marshal. Later came the Marcus murder.

Hargis was buried Saturday in a casket which he ordered for himself about a month ago. The son was taken from jail to the family residence to view the corpse of his father before its burial, at which place he showed the first remorse for his horrible deed. Dropping on his knees beside his father's coffin, he was shaken with grief and exclaimed "Lord have mercy." He was returned to jail prostrated.

The body of Judge Hargis was laid to rest beside the graves of his three brothers, all of whom had met death from bullet wounds at the hands of enemies.

A very popular and one quite abundant on the Florida coast is the sawfish. ## THE F. S. of E. COLUMN

—BY JAS. H. SAUNDERS—

According to adjournment published in the Courier last week the Fulton County Local Union met at Montgomery School House on Saturday, Feb. 8th, at 10 a.m. with President W. B. McGeehee in the chair.

Roll call showed all the officers present except two trustees, also a fairly good number of the members and several visitors.

The regular program moved very smoothly until we reached unfinished business, showing that we had purchased over $200 worth of clover seed and still needed over 100 bushels of oats. Also that some members had horses, mules, cattle and hay to sell and others wanted to buy these very articles. Thus the meeting brought buyers and sellers, and producers and consumers together proving that the union is an excellent advertising medium, in fact next thing to the Hickman Courier.

But when we reached unfinished business the President declared that this brought up elevators. John Creed led off with an excellent speech in favor of rat proof ware houses on high, dry land to be used in place of elevators as they are so much cheaper and can be used to store wheat in summer and corn in winter. He told of his visit to southwest Missouri, and showed that the farmers there were making a grand success by holding their grain in ware houses. This brought W. N. Brasfield and Geo. B. Threlkeld to the rescue of the elevator. The President Secretary, J. J. C. Roper, Harvey Bush and perhaps some others were drawn into the discussion and it became so exciting that all forgot the dinner hour. Allen Davis, D. L. Thomas, Elmer Threlkeld, Harmon Shaw and perhaps a few others began to bring vessels of oyster soup, baskets of chicken, dressing, pies, cakes and all the trimmings necessary for an oyster dinner.

In partaking of this bountiful repast, all forgot their difference of opinion in regard to ware houses, elevators, etc., and all joined in praise and thanks to the local trustee, Allen Davis, for the efforts he had made to stir up the friends in Montgomery district in making our visit so pleasant.

In the afternoon it was decided that as the Vice President and Secretary had to go to Hickman to receive weight and divide the clover seed, that we would not have time to do justice to the special program, therefore we passed some business resolutions, thanked the trustees of district 12, for the use of their house, the local trustee, for the comfortable fire, and the citizens of the district for the excellent dinner with special thanks to our young friends, Elmer Threlkeld, Harmon Shaw and Gavitt Toombs for their superior method of preparing and seasoning oyster soup, serving pies, cakes and other delicacies, and adjourned to render the special program at Hazel Dell, on Saturday, Feb. 15th, at 10 a.m.

He Did Not Think.
Judge when I ask you how many times you have been arrested before I would not laugh if anyone asked me that question.—Translated for Transatlantic Tales from Fleetgate Blather.

In this issue of the Courier will be found the announcement of S. D. Luten for the office of County Court Clerk of Fulton county. Mr. Luten needs no introduction to the voters of this county, having held this office two terms, and has doubtless kissed every kid, between the age of 4 and 28 years, in the county. Let this be as it may—it's part of a candidate's work—Luten is a splendid fellow and there's no better timber for this office in the county, as his former incumbency will testify. If he is elected to this office, he will make us a faithful, efficient and courteous official—if he isn't, the man who beat him will know he has been in a race and may congratulate himself upon the fact that he has beaten a mighty good man. Alright, Sam, you're off.

An Honest Saloon Man.

Following is a signed business card that an Arizona saloon man issued. Every word is true and he makes "no bones" of what he says.
Friends and Neighbors—I am grateful for past favors, and having supplied my store with a fine line of choice wines and liquors, allow me to inform you that I shall continue to make drunks, paupers and beggars for the sober, industrious respectable part of the community to support. My whiskey will excite riot, robbery and bloodshed.

They will diminish your comfort, increase your expenses and shorten life. I shall confidently recommend them as sure to multiply fatal accidents and incurable diseases.

They will deprive some of life,
others of reason, some of character and all others of peace. They will make fathers friends, mothers widows, children orphans and all poor.
I will train your sons in indolence, dissipation, ignorance, lewdness and every other vice. I will corrupt the ministers of religion, obstruct the gospel, defile the church and cause as much temporal and eternal death as the public." It may be at the loss of my never dying soul, but I have a family to support—the business pays and the public encourages it.

Still "Mad" At Her.

"I could not see you while you were living, so I do not care to see you after you are dead."

This is the reply W. Meadows, of Fulton, who was the defendant in the noted Hawley-Meadows $100,000 damage suit, is purported to have made to a telegram from his wife in St. Louis stating that she was in a dying condition.

Mrs. Meadows accompanied by her young daughter, went to St. Louis several months ago to reside with her sister. She has been in bad health for some time and is now regarded to be hopelessly ill. Shortly after the sensational horse-whipping Meadows administered to Rev. W. H. Hawley, a Presbyterian preacher, Mrs. Meadows brought suit for divorce, alleging cruelty, and asked for big alimony. She moved to St. Louis and it is said that worry over the affair impaired her health. A few years ago Mrs. Meadows was noted for her beauty, being one of the handsomest women in Western Kentucky.

When the Hawley-Meadows suit was tried in November it resulted in a hung jury, and Meadows soon afterwards compromised by paying all cost, Hawley's attorneys' fee and granting Mrs. Meadows a divorce and alimony.

Meadows is a hotel proprietor at Fulton.

If you have Cataract, rid yourself of this repulsive disease. Ask Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis., to mail you free, a trial box of his Dr. Shoop's Cataract Remedy. A simple, single test, will surely tell you a Cataract truth well worth your knowing. Write to-day. Don't suffer longer. Sold by all dealers.

It is about time for the Cumberland Telephone Co., to send their local representative around and ask our merchants for money to send to Nashville and have new directories printed. Remember, when you buy advertising space in the telephone directory, you pay for the printing of it, besides sending your money out of town. The merchant who has a normal spinal column will tell them there is nothing doing, if the directory must be made in Nashville instead of Hickman.

Ed Slaughter, one of the best fellows who ever resided in this country, died in Miles, Texas, Thursday. For several years he had been in ill health, and finally succumbed to the white plague. For a number of years Mr. Slaughter was a member of the firm of Slaughter & Franklin, in the dry goods business, at Fulton. He was a member of the Odd Fellows and Masons and was buried by the two orders. Deceased was 55 years old and is survived by several children.

Even From The Mountains

Boiling Springs Limestone is prepared for the market. It is a pure, fine, light-colored stone, found in the mountains of the Blue Ridge, in the Grand Junction, Idaho, where it is used in the manufacture of lime.

On motion it was ordered that the City Attorney and the two Councilmen be directed to the office of the Limestone Company to make arrangements to have the stone delivered to the city.

I wish that I might talk with all sixty-one about the actual cause of Stomach, Heart and Kidney ailments. To explain in person how weak Stomach nerves leads to Stomach weakness, I am sure would interest all. And it is the same with weak Heart or weak Kidneys.
This is why my prescription—Dr.

Shoop's Restorative—so promptly reaches ailments of the Stomach, Heart, and Kidneys. It is wrong to drug the Stomach of stimulate the Heart or kidneys. These weak side nerves simply need more strength. And it is the same

On motion it was ordered that the City furnish material sufficient to build the steps up Union Street, the steps to be built by private subscriptions.

On motion the Clerk was instructed to furnish the Marshal with a list of parties who have been fined in the Police Court, which list was recently filed by the Police Judge, and that the Marshal rearrest the parties and take them before the Police Judge, and some final disposition be made of each case at once.

Marshal Dillon reported that he had appointed Mr. Joe Ballard as one of the Policemen, and on motion the appointment of Mr. Ballard was confirmed by the Council.

The Princess Elopement.

I am a young girl and he is an old man; that is immaterial. Besides, he has gone abroad. It is now irrelevant.

"I promise to go out and ask the first man I see to marry me," she declared.

"Pray heaven, it may be I escaped him," said the duke dryly.

"Oh, do not doubt that I have the courage to do the like. Moreover, I would not care if he were dead. The old prince is old enough to be my father."

"You are not obliged to call him husband." The duke possessed a sharp wit which was unusual in him. Persons who had won some of the state universities had paid out to his ministers that day, "but us not waste any time," he added.

"I shall not waste any—minimally."

"Order your gown from Vienna or Paris, or from wherever you will. But don't haggle over the price; let it be a good one. I'm willing to go deep for you."

"You loved my suit once"—she broken heart in her voice.

"I love her still—but, unluckily, I must have peace in the house because you have so far accomplished in the matter of creating trouble," he took up the paper.

"My sins?"—she asked, blushing.

"Let us call them your transgressions, I assure. You have ridden a horse as a man rides it; you have ridden bicycles in public streets; you have sailed away in a man's boat; and visited houses known well, where birthed beauties know well."

Printed By Request.

Mix the following by shaking well in a bottle, and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime.

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce. Compound Karon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. A local druggist is the authority that these simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at nominal cost from our home druggists.

The mixture is said to cleanse and strengthen the clogged and inactive Kidneys, cure the Baw-kash, Bladder weakness and Urinary trouble of all kinds, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Those who have tried this say it positively overcomes pain in the back, clears the urine of sediment and regulates urination, especially at night, curing even the worst forms of bladder weakness.

Every man or woman here who feels that the kidneys are not strong or acting in a healthy manner should mix this prescription at home and give it a trial, as it is said to do wonders for many persons.

The Scranton (Pa.) Times was first to print this remarkable prescription, in October, of 1904, since when all the leading newspapers of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and other cities have made many announcements of it to their readers.

TALK WITH YOUNG MEN

The young man with limited means, who has but a few hundred dollars to begin life with, or perhaps has nothing but a pair of strong and willing hands, we would say to all such young men that the farm is the best place in the world. Do not be afraid to toil but set an example to the weak, lazy loiterer about town by putting your hand to the plow.

If you are a young married man then the farm offers still greater inducements. We know it will cost your young wife some pangs to separate from friends and home in the town, but if she is a true woman she will do it without a murmur, for the battle of life is an earnest one, and we must each sustain our part.

Do not expect to begin your married life in the same style that your father and mother are now enjoying in their old age, with the fruits of many years of till, but be contented to begin humbly.

Plant, and sow, and reap, build your dwellings and garnish them about with fruits and flowers; promote agriculture, one of the great institutions of God; and when your sons and daughters grow up like olive plants around your table, while you fail not to remember their physical wants, remember also to supply the intellectual food their minds crave, let them have good books, papers and proper recreation, that they may not imbibe the false notion that farming is drudgery and every farmer and farmer's wife a drudge.

As we look about us, how many sons and daughters of wealthy farmers we see who despise their surroundings, and only look on "father" as a very necessary machine to earn money for their expenditure, and "mother," who has labored for them every day since they were born, as a very useful automaton for doing cooking and general house work.

When you are tilling the rich soil think how much worthier is the cause you are prosecuting than to crowd into some already over-stocked business or profession in your home town, with only one object in view to have white hands and immaculate clothing, and to be always struggling with your limited means to keep up with those in outward seeming who are much wealthier than yourselves.

SLAVES OF GOD.

Who are the leaders in our best society, generally speaking? Why, a man may carry a whole library in his head, and if his coat be seedy and his pocket empty he is nowhere; while a brainless fool whose attire is faultless, and who carries a full purse, is a first-rate, smart fellow. What chance has a young lady a little out of style, who has to earn her own living, to shine in society by the side of one of our fashionable ladies whose papa is a millionaire? Socially we are the slaves of gold. Old-fashioned people look at it in the old-fashioned way, and say it is all wrong. And so it is; but, it is a fact that stares us in the face that those who are worth the most are considered as of the most worth. After all, perhaps the wisest man was right when he said "The love of money is the root of all evil." We know from sad experience that it is very inconvenient to be poor, but it is often a true history of woman's woes.

THE OLD MAN.

Bow low the head—do reverence to the old man, once like you. The vicissitudes of life have altered his hair and changed the round, mealy face to the worn visage before you. Once he beat heart with aspiration, crushed by disappointment, as you, perhaps, is destined to be. Once that form stalked proudly through the gay scenes of pleasure, the beau ideal of grace; now the hand of time, that withers the flowers of yesterday, has bent that figure and destroyed that noble carriage. Once at your age, he possessed the thousand thoughts that pass through your brain, now wishing to accomplish deeds equal to a monk in fame. Once again imagining life a dream that the sooner he awoke from the better. But he has lived the dream very near through; the time to awaken is very near at hand, his eye never kindles at old deeds of daring, and the hand takes a firmer grasp of the staff.

Bow low the head, boy, as you would in your old age be reverenced.

Woman's hopes are too often biased. In early youth many say to themselves, "I shall be happy when I have a husband to love me best of all;" then when the husband is too careless, "My child will comfort me;" then through the mother's watching and toll, "My child will repay me when it grows up." And at last, after the long journey of years has been wearily traveled through, the mother's heart is weighed down by a heavy burden, and no hope remains but the grave. We hope this may not be the case with any who weekly reads this column, but all must admit that it is often a true history of woman's woes.

It has prevented neuralgia many times. It has been sold by Davidson's Drug Stores, Inc. and Hicks & Wilsons."

Good for Country Editors.

James Howe of the Brotherhood Welfare Association, himself known as the millionaire hobo, is evolving a plan for the transportation of his unemployed followers to fields of industry, which he will soon present to the trunk line railroads of the country. How proposes to guarantee the railroad company accepting his proposition an immunity from hobbos if the company will agree to attach a special "hobo car" on one of its regular freight trains once a month.

By this plan the hobo will travel only by the "special excursion," and the railroad company is pledged the support of Howe and his association that no hobo will be found riding the bumpers on this road.

Saved From Being A Cripple for Life.

"Almost six or seven weeks ago I became paralyzed all at once with rheumatism," writes Mrs. Louis McKinley, 918 Seventh Street, Oakland, Cal. "It struck me in the back and extended from the hip of my right leg down to my foot. The attack was so severe that I could not move in bed and was afraid that I should be a cripple for life."

"About twenty years ago I received a sample bottle of your Liniment but never had occasion to use it, as I have always been well, but something told me that Sloan's Liniment would help me, so I tried it. After the second application I could get up out of bed, and in three days could walk, and now feel well and entirely free from pain."

"My friends were very much surprised at my rapid recovery and I was only too glad to tell them that Sloan's Liniment was the only medicine I used."
